

Name: _____

MEMORY ORGANIZERS

Sketch that Thought

Directions: For this memory strategy, think of the idea/concept. Then, create a simple sketch to help you remember the key points.

Vocabulary/Idea/Person:	Vocabulary/Idea/Person:
Vocabulary/Idea/Person:	Vocabulary/Idea/Person:
Vocabulary/Idea/Person:	Vocabulary/Idea/Person:
Vocabulary/Idea/Person:	Vocabulary/Idea/Person:

Name: _____

Word Parts

Directions: For this memory strategy, look for smaller words within the larger ones that you are required to know. For example, in the word ‘representative,’ there is the word “represent,” which means to stand up for something. Therefore, a representative is someone who stands up for something that he/she believes.

Vocabulary Term –

Smaller Part(s) –

How does this help me remember the vocabulary?

Vocabulary Term –

Smaller Part(s) –

How does this help me remember the vocabulary?

Vocabulary Term –

Smaller Part(s) –

How does this help me remember the vocabulary?

Vocabulary Term –

Smaller Part(s) –

How does this help me remember the vocabulary?

Name: _____

Chunking

Directions: For this memory strategy, chunk similar items/words into categories. As a challenge, see if you can make a story using these items to help you remember their meaning(s).
